

Dear Sirs and Madams, Please leave our No Call law alone. People should not be subjected to telemarketers in their homes if that is their wish. Since this law was enacted my quality of home life has been greatly improved. Big business has no right to invade my private life. Thank you